IMPERIAL NEW YEAR'S EVE TRAIN

CELEBRATE NEW YEAR'S
ON BOARD OF THE MAJESTIC
IMPERATOR

A PALACE ON RAILS

When travelling with high-ranking diplomatic guests, the Emperor Franz Joseph I often chose to include them in a train ride aboard the Austrian Imperial Train. A handsome steam locomotive would pull the regal and luxuriously equipped court carriages from Vienna to the His Majesty's Summer Residence or to other locations in the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

Since most of these carriages were sadly destroyed during World War I, the spectacle of this Majestic train has only survived by means of stories, drawings and original photographs. Thanks to the dedication of the former railroad engineer, Gottfried O. Rieck, his partners and the Majestic Emperor Team, guests today from throughout the world can once again experience this dream on wheels relive. Great value has been placed on the procurement and use of original and authentic furnishings, decor and documents from the Austro-Hungarian Empire.
